NUMB. 8405

TUESDAY, MARCH 8. 1743.

Cadiz, Feb. 11.

THE Veſſel lately arrived in Lagos Bay from America, is the Princeſſa, which left the Havanna on the 6th of November laſt. Its Cargo conſiſts in 500 Cheſts of Cochineal, 300 of Indigo, and 219,000 Pieces of Eight. We learn by this Ship, that the St. George, a Regiſter Veſſel, had put in at Terceira, ſo that it was not known when ſhe would be able to purſue her Voyage, ſince it was known, at the Time the Princeſſa ſailed, that there were two Engliſh Men of War in thoſe Parts. The Crew of the ſame Veſſel report, that a Regiſter Ship arriv'd at the Havanna had met in the old Canal two Engliſh Privateers with a Prize; that the French Ship the Georgia, with the Cargo of another Veſſel on board, call'd the Saviour of the World, which ran aſhore on the Canaries, had been obliged to put into Guarico, after having loſt her Maſts; and that a Spaniſh Bylander had, on the 28th of January laſt, been in the Streight of Cape Finiſter, an Engliſh Ship call'd the Charles, bound from London to Guiney.

Geneva, Feb. 22. It is not yet clear whether the Spaniards will be able to purchaſe a free Paſſage through the Valais or not. The Biſhop of Sion, who is Captain General of the Country, and ſome other of the principal Members of the great Council, ſhew a Diſpoſition to comply with the Spaniſh Demands; but the People are obſtinately bent to defend the Paſſes, notwithſtanding all the pompous Promiſes made them in the Name of Don Philip. In the mean time, the Spaniards are making all the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for a March; they have recall'd their Cavalry from Chablais, but they have ſent thither a Body of Infantry in their Stead. They expreſs great Impatience as to the Reinforcements they expect, and ſeem to be very deſirous of being once more in Action, that they may be able to force a Paſſage through Piedmont into Italy.

Berlin, March 2. General Marwitz, Governor of the City and Fortreſs of Breſlau, is appointed by his Majeſty to receive, on the 18th of this Month, the Homage of the Principalities of Oppelen, Ratibor, Neiſs, Troppau, Jagerndorf, and the Diſtrict of Katſcher. His Majeſty has made a Preſent to the Count de Czernichew, Envoy Extraordinary from her Ruſſian Majeſty, of a fine Piece of Tapeſtry worth 4000 Crowns, on his preſenting him, from her Imperial Majeſty, with the Order of St. Andrew; and at the ſame time the King made a Preſent to Baron Sievers, who brought the Enſigns of the Order, of his Picture ſet with Diamonds.

Amberg, March 1. Six Squadrons of Imperial Troops, and a whole Brigade of French Cavalry, had taken Poſt on the Wiltz, not far from hence, and expect daily ſuch Reinforcements, as may enable them to diſpoſſeſs the Enemy of their advanced Poſts, and reſtore our Communication with the French Quarters. This was what was formerly preſſed by M. Seckendorff at his late Conference with M. Broglio. If we ſhould be forc'd to ſurrender, the whole Palatinate would fall again into the Hands of the Auſtrians, who are not like to treat us ſo gently as they did before. We are inform'd, that ſome Thouſands of French Recruits are actually arriv'd in Bavaria, but at the ſame time we have the Mortification of ſeeing every Day Detachments of Horſe and Foot join the Forces that form the Blockade of this City.

Cologne, March 8. The Engliſh Troops quarter'd in this Electorate, behave ſo regularly, and pay ſo well for every Thing they have, that the Inhabitants are extremely well pleaſed with their Company. The Peaſants have Orders to clear and mend the Roads, in order to facilitate the March of 12 Regiments of Auſtrians into the Duchy of Juliers, where they are expected in three Days time. They carry with them a Train of heavy Artillery, and are ſaid to be as fine Troops as can be ſeen.

Hague, March 10. The Marquis de St. Giles, Ambaſſador from the King of Spain, has publiſhed a large Account of the late Battle at Campo Santo, in which all the Honours of the Day are given to the Spaniards, extravagant Praiſes beſtowed on every Corps in Count Gage's Army, and at the Cloſe it is aſſerted, that the Auſtrians loſt 4500 Men, and that the Spaniards had about 1200 Killed and Wounded. The Sardinian Ambaſſador has likewiſe publiſhed an Account of the ſame Battle, which is allowed to be equally accurate and impartial; and in it the Loſs of the Spaniards is aſſerted to be above 4000 Men, that of the Auſtrians is computed at 1082 Men, and 462 Horſes, and that of the Piedmonteſe at 638 Men and 260 Horſes.

Extract from the Paris Alamain.

Genoa, Feb. 27. 'It is certain, according to all our 'Letters from Parma and Modena, that Count Traun's 'cauſing Te Deum to be ſung, was a mere Stroke of 'Policy, ſince the Spaniards really ought to have the 'Honour of the late Victory; inaſmuch as they had 'Time to carry off their Spoils, and their Wounded; '180 Waggons loaded with Proviſions, 68 filled with 'Arms, 500 Saddle-horſes, and 400 Priſoners of War, 'amongſt whom were 60 Officers, together with Cloth 'enough for four Regiments. It is true, that the Auſtrians have ſent to Parma 360 Spaniſh Priſoners, but 'that was only a Battalion that were ſuch Cowards as 'to throw down their Arms without Fighting, and 'amongſt them there is not one Officer of Rank, a 'Standard, or a Pair of Colours. All the Piedmonteſe 'Troops left the Auſtrians as ſoon as the Battle was over, 'and retired to Modena; which was the more extraordinary, as every body expected the Spaniards would 'have returned again to the Charge, as they had loſt no 'more than 3000 Men.'

The People of Paris are certainly bound to give Credit to this Account, as it is apparently calculated for their Uſe, and nobody's elſe. A victorious Army's having Time to carry off Part of their Baggage, and an entire Battalion ſurrendering Priſoners of War without an Officer of Rank, Standard, or a Pair of Colours among them, and an Army's repaſſing a River after burning their Bridges over it, are Stories which if they will not do at Paris, have no Chance for being believed elſewhere.

Extract of a Letter from Geneva, March 8, N. S.

'The Marquis de la Mina, the Spaniſh General, was 'to lay as laſt Night at a Village call'd Laney, about half 'a League from this City; but it is believed that he 'had been there ſome time before, in order to view 'the Ground for a Camp. —— I juſt now hear that 'the Duke de Apremont, the Piedmonteſe General, died 'the 23d of laſt Month of the Wounds he received in 'the Battle of Panaro, to the great Grief of the King of 'Sardinia, and all his Friends, he being look'd on as a 'very experienc'd General.'

We are informed, that the Subſcribers to the new Three per Cent. Annuities, are to be allowed Two per Cent. for prompt Payment, and that their Intereſt will commence from the Day they make their Payment; many of them have already raiſed their Subſcription Money, by diſpoſing of South-Sea Annuities, by which Exchange they ſecure an Intereſt of Four per Cent. for Fourteen Years to come, or Three and a Half per Cent. for Twenty-eight; and tho' there ſhould be a Reduction of Intereſt on the other Funds, they can be no Sufferers, unleſs the Publick can borrow Money under Three per Cent. which at preſent is not very likely.

WHEREAS many Seamen have from time to time inconsiderately deserted his Majesty's Service, by leaving the Ships they belong'd to, as they could find Opportunities for so doing, for which Crime they have incurred the Loss of their Wages, and are punishable with Death by a Court Martial; but my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty being willing to impute such Desertion to a Rashness which most of them soon repent of, and would return to their Ships, but that they are terrified therefrom by their Apprehensions of Punishment; and their Lordships, in order to encourage them to return to their Duty, being inclined to shew them so much Indulgence as to remove such Apprehensions, do hereby declare, That such of the said Men who return on board the Ships to which they did belong, on or before the Second Day of next Month; or, in case those Ships are gone abroad, if they go on board some other of his Majesty's Ships, they shall not be punished in any Manner whatsoever, on account of the Crime they have committed, in withdrawing themselves from his Majesty's Service, excepting such as have been guilty of Mutiny, or any other notorious Crimes: And as a farther Encouragement to them, their Lordships are pleased moreover to declare, That such as shall so return, shall have their R's taken off, and be paid their Wages for the Ships from which they run. But their Lordships do also think fit to declare, That if any of the Men who have deserted as aforesaid, do not make a proper Use of the Indulgence hereby offered them, by returning to his Majesty's Service within the Time abovementioned, they must expect to be strictly sought after, and in case they are apprehended, be brought to a Court Martial, and treated as the Law directs.

WHEREAS several Seamen belonging to his Majesty's Ship the Sterling Castle, at Spithead, have taken the Liberty to absent themselves from their Duty without Leave, and the said Ship being soon to proceed to Sea, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do strictly charge the said Men to return immediately to their Duty on board the said Ship, on pain not only of losing their Wages, but of being apprehended and tried at a Court Martial as Deserters, in case they neglect so to do.

If the said Men apply to the Navy Board, they will be allowed Conduct Money, and Carriage for their Chests and Bedding to Chatham and Portsmouth; but if any of those who are to repair to Chatham, chuse to go down in the Tender which will be appointed to carry their Chests and Bedding, rather than to travel by Land, the Navy Board will cause them to be received on board such Tender, and carried to their Ship at Chatham.*

AN ENQUIRY concerning REDEMPTION.

Wherein the Christian Redemption is particularly consider'd. To which is prefix'd, A Preface; wherein is shewn, that if Christianity be not founded on Argument, but on those Divine Impressions that are made on Mens Minds concerning it, (as a late ingenious Author has attempted to prove) then it is most uncertain and precarious, and cannot be reduced to any Standards. And in which is also shewn, that Christ's Kingdom has been so far from being supported and established by the Interposition of Civil Power, that, on the contrary, it has rather been annihilated thereby.
